

Coverage

NLSP Data Cubes

The National Land Survey Program produces an array of data cubes from its primary database. These data cubes can be used by clients to feed into existing in-house property models and reporting structures. Some examples of data topics;

Product metrics

Lot area

Lot frontage

Depth by front

Project metrics

Geo coding

Type of project

Sales performance

Sale by product type

Sales by project

Sale by price point

Pricing metrics

Medians

$ per SQM

Price distributions

Supply side metrics

Forward supply

Stock balance

Supply by project

Developer metrics

Market share

Portfolio